

L&S ELECTRIC, INC.
JOB POSTING

Job Title: Power Systems Specialist
Location: Coon Rapids, MN

Job Summary: Repair, testing and startup of industrial electrical equipment. Work is performed at the customer site as well as in shop.

Essential Functions:

- Initially will be working in shop and on maintenance projects.
- Respond in a timely manner to customer requirements for service on emergency breakdowns.
- When on call, required to respond to customer service calls 24 hours day, 7 days per week.
- Troubleshoot industrial electrical equipment with limited knowledge of equipment working on.
- Work alone.
- Long hours often required.

Non-Essential Functions:

- Computer literate
- Communication skills

Requirements/Qualifications:

- Valid drivers' license, able to be insured.
- Associate Degree in Electronics preferred.
- Industrial electrical experience preferred.
- High mechanical aptitude.
- Ability to read electrical prints required.
- Ability to wear personal protective equipment as required; hearing protection, hard hat, safety glasses, etc.
- Experience using basic electrical test equipment; oscilloscope, multi-meter, z-meter, hi pot, megger, and other common instruments.
- Reliable transportation.

Working Conditions:

- Occasional lifting of heavy objects.
- Working conditions determined by facility working at; heat, cold, noisy.
- Poor air quality may exist.
- Uneven or slippery walking surfaces.
- Aerial work is sometimes necessary.

Other Requirements:

- Fluent in English – reading, writing, communicating.

If interested, please submit an internal application to Marsha Wadzinski, Corporate Office, by April 15, 2015. Applications received after this date may not be considered.

L&S Electric is committed to providing Equal Opportunity to all employees and job applicants regardless of race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, national origin, veteran status, sexual preference or marital status in any personnel action.